

Phathom, Insidious

How did you breach my inside
Gazed into I thought was closed
And I will lead you down
Cause its easy to think you know
The hard things to refrain
To remain
Where did I lose myself?
How did you find me hiding here?
What shall I say to you?
Dont lose yourself in me
Can you feel
The thorn in your side?
Fake no pain for pride and go
And leave my pleasure alone
Dont lose yourself
Dont fool yourself
Dont lose yourself in me
