

Phideaux, Soundblast

Wait for the sun
You run
You see
You will fall down
I had it all
Now to take the final fall
I had it all
Had it all

Wait for the sound
Wait for the sound
It's coming down
Wait for the sound

"We are in possession
Of the most destructive explosive
Devised by man
We have just begun
To use this weapon
Against your homeland

Evacuate your cities
Surrender"

I have you to blame
For nothing
Will be the same

I have you to blame
For nothing
