

Phil Joel, Changed

I wrote a letter today
And what I wrote
Was my own obituary
Cause from the graveyard of self
You have resurrected me

I sing Jesus
You have changed the way I do everything
You have changed the way I see everything

With You I begin
Everyday the same
And I'm gonna drink deep
That is why I came
Cause truth is a river flowing
Renewal for your mind
Let it set your heart free
The way that it did mine

I sing Jesus
You have changed the way I do everything
You have changed the way I see everything

Looked in the mirror today
And what I saw was not the same as yesterday
Cause more and more You're Transforming and rearranging me

You have changed the way I do everything
You have changed the way I wear my wedding ring
You have changed the way I treat my family
You have changed the way I see all my friends
You have changed the way that I spend my time
You have changed the way that I use my mind
You have changed the things I spend money on
You have changed everything I ever thought was mine
You have changed my emotions
You have steadied me
You have changed my eyes and what I let them see
You have changed the course of my history
Thank God You're still changing me!
