

Phoenix, Second To None

Second to none, I wouldn't seriously get involved in a thing Bored of all the talking, you know it didn't

I've changed
you've changed
it's not the same
Tell me what 's the difference if I go back to normal again?
Right away

I should have known I'd look at you with opened eyes the morning after Did you cut your hair? Did you change anything these days?
I heard a "liar"; then I heard a laughter 20 calls a day it makes no difference at all

Last year
Last call
You lost your ways
Tell me what's the difference if I go back to normal again?
Right away

I thought I heard a lie
I thought I heard a "liar";

I doubt your intentions are to make me feel any better today I even doubt tomorrow will be as easy
Right away

I thought I heard a lie
I thought I heard a "liar";
