

Picture House, You And I

(Browne/Glenister)

There you are running through
You and only you can soothe me
Can't deny this bitter troth
Addicted to this love of you
Everytime I take you out
You fill up my fear and doubts
I hold you closer than I should
As close as any killer could

(Chorus)

'Cause you and I aren't ordinary
This love I have will someday kill me
Who knows maybe one day
I'll see the light
One day I might
As the day disappears
I feel you under deep beneath
My skin's alive day and night
There's nothing left that feels less right
(Chorus)
