

Piebald, Human Taste Test

this is not suitable for human consumption you ask how i know it's just cuz i read the label and i listen to the sound we are living through the must with generation i never heard a song like this before except yesterday

oh yeah alright
fight the good fight
oh yeah alright
fight the good fight
oh yeah alright

something's got to give and something's got to catch get in the last words close in on the final destination poke me with a Q-tip then claim it's a knockout all ears all eyes all the time you stare at the moon your chance is coming soon so get ready the night is caving in you stare at the moon and your chance will come too soon so get ready the night is caving in

i read the label and i had myself a taste poke me with a Q-tip soft and slow and gentle all ears all eyes all the time

oh yeah alright

all ears all eyes all the time
oh yeah alright
