

Pinback, Your Sickness

Something we both saw
Shattered all of us
Something we both saw
Mattered all along

In spite of all our work
In spite of all our energy
Because of all our ignorance

Something we both saw
Shattered all of us
Something we both saw
Mattered all along

Took us for a ride
Way, way off of course

Gotta admit you got us good
All this time I never got Gaffe like that
We believed all we heard

Got a mouth
Insert the hook
Reel us in
Chain pulling man
We trusted you
See you later

Never hurts, but it never
Helps to read before you sign
