

Pinhead Gunpowder, I Am An Elephant

Wow, look at you
You're pathetic
It's amusing
It's depressing
It's amazing

Tell everyone
You're what you're not
And they believe you
They proceed to Emulate you

Now you've got a whole
Circle jerk of fakes
Crowding up my space
I'm talking shit behind your back
I'd say it to your face
But I'm not sure which one
Hey!

There's one thing that hasn't changed
You're still a joke to me
It's so easy to see right through you

Do you remember
That I knew you
When you were just Yourself?

Well I wonder, were you ever?
Anyway, I liked you better
When you did not
Change with the weather

Doesn't it feel too good to know
I'll always remember you?
Do you wish I'd go away?
Do you think I could?
Change your past, change your style,
Change your identity
But you're a fool and a fake
I don't forget easily

There's one thing that hasn't changed
You're still a joke to me
It's so easy to see right through you
