

Pink Cream 69, In My Dreams

Sleep now,
close my eyes & slip away
forces,
hold the line so I won't stray Teach me,
I may learn from what I find Strangers,
float inside my mind

Under the strain
My soul remains
break from the chains
so watch me in my dreams now

Voices,
spoken from a distant land
Faces,
laid forever in the sand Feelings,
I was sure I'd never known Discover what they'd shown

Under the strain
My soul remains
break from the chains
I slip away
I've gone astray
to my dismay & watch me in my dreams

I fall asleep & then I see so many people that aren't me I move inside their lonely spirit

watch me in my dreams
watch me in my dreams
sleep now
sleep now
