

Pink Cream 69, Shadows Of Time

Don't remember when I came here Was it in a dream?
All the thoughts that now surround me are not what they seem?
is there anybody out there? who could know my face?
in this vision no decision

shadows of time
cast away the darkness for my eyes so I can fight the good fight
shadows of time
seems that I've been lost 1000 years & I will fight for the good fight over shadows of time

In the dark I search the answer twisting in my mind pessimism in your laughter makes you so unkind memories are walking in me guilty is my plea
in this vision no decision

So I face the final curtain with this endless dream in my vision no decision
