

Pink Cream 69, Walkin' Out To Heaven

Break down the wall and blow my cover
We are livin' next to one another
Now can't you see the flag is burnin'?
We are the force, you better learn it now!

The time is right to start the dealin'
No words can tell the way we're feelin'
Trapped 40 years with 14 million
Don't want to be your mindless minion

The time is right tonight
(The time is right tonight)

I'm walkin' out to heaven
I'm walkin' home to you
Walkin' out to heaven
I'm walkin' home to you

Walkin' out to heaven

So many died so short of freedom
So many failed and laid there bleedin'
No can't you see the border's burning?
We are the force, you better learn it now!

The time is right tonight
(The time is right tonight)

I'm walkin' out to heaven
I'm walkin' home to you
Walkin' out to heaven
I'm walkin' home to you

I'm walkin' out to heaven

Hey...

Hey, hey...

The time is right tonight
(The time is right tonight)

I'm walkin' out to heaven
I'm walkin' home to you
Walkin' out to heaven
I'm walkin' home to you

Walkin' out to heaven

Walkin' out to heaven
