

Pink Cream 69, Way Down

there's an old man on a high chair in the name of Jesus Christ keep on preachin' that religion though the past has often lied sold his faith but could not face anyone sold us hope but couldn't change what's been done way down, way down deep in his eyes how long, how long can he conceal the lies?

flew his jet to De Janeiro to deliver peace of mind kneels to kiss the burnin' pavement all his hypocrites behind tries to fake his way as God's only son full of shit! you just can't fool everyone

how long, how long can he conceal the lies?

how long, how long can he conceal the lies?
way down, way down
