

Pink Cream 69, Way Down (Live)

Alright!
The Pink Cream 69
Hope you're gonna enjoy the show tonight
Yeah!
This one is Way down

There's an old man on a high chair
In the name of Jesus Christ
Keeps on preachin' that religion
Though the past has often lied

He sold his faith but could not face anyone (face anyone)
Sold us hope but couldn't change what's been done

Way down, way down deep in his eyes, way down
How long, how long can he conceal the lies?
Way down, way down

Flew his jet to De Janeiro
To deliver peace of mind
Kneels to kiss the burnin' pavement
All his hypocrites behind

He tries to fake his way as God's only son (God's only son)
Full of shit! You just can't fool everyone

Way down, way down deep in his eyes, way down
How long, how long can he conceal the lies?
Way down, way down

Tries to fake his way as God's only son
What doesn't kill the world is under the gun

Way down, way down deep in his eyes, way down
How long, how long can he conceal the lies?
Way down, way down
Deep in his eyes, way down
How long, how long can he conceal the lies?
Way down, way down, down, down...
