

Pink Cream 69, We Taught The Children

(Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh
Ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh, ooh ooh ooh ooh ooh...)

Once we were so young and blind
We were all so innocent and kind, so innocent and kind...

Whatever the world looks like right now
Whatever the time to come will allow
We taught the children
We taught the children of the earth

All the sorrows of the world
Have been laid like fire in our hands
From the father to the son it stands
So the circle never ends

Whatever the world looks like right now
Whatever the time to come will allow
We taught the children
We taught the children of the earth

Everybody's gotta know wrong and right
Everybody stop! Turn on the right!
We taught the children
We taught the children of the earth

Once we were so young and blind
We were all so innocent and kind

Whatever the world looks like right now
Whatever the time to come will allow
We taught the children
We taught the children of the earth

Everybody's gotta know wrong and right
Everybody stop! Turn on the right!
We taught the children
