

PinkPantheress, Mosquito

On a Monday,
can I see you?
can I check my numbers, 'cause I want to
I know it's annoying
how much I do
spending you the day that I want the day that I want another day then, maybe Tuesday can I spend a fortune 'cause I want to I know it's appalling how I lose you spending every day that I want, the day that I want what happened to me?
'cause I just had a dream I was dead and I only cared 'cause I was taken from you you're the only thing that I own I hear my bell ring I'd only answer for you (la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la, la) I'd only answer for you I had prayed out loud and lord you answered me too early I was too young starting out now I'm too scared that you might leave me I feel like I'm still a child because I always cross my fingers

Now you're sitting in accounts 'cause I'm too scared to take you out now save me
'cause I just had a dream I was dead
and I only cared 'cause I was taken from you
you're the only thing that I own
I hear my bell ring, I'd only answer for you
on a Monday,
can I see you?
can I check my numbers, 'cause I want to
I know it's annoying
how much I do
spending you the day that I want, the day that I want
another day then maybe Tuesday
can I spend a fortune 'cause I want to
I know it's appalling

Spending every day that, I want the day that I want
what happened to me?

'Cause I just had a dream I was dead
you're the only thing that I own
I hear my bell ring I'd only answer for you
