

PinkPantheress, Picture in my mind (Sam Gellaitry)

i always noticed something bout you so similar to me it's scares me i'm impatient i can't wait to see what it is that brought you to be identical to me it's frightening so why are we together

now when we sometimes do disagree
i like it
it's a sign you don't think like me that's fine
but we sometimes feel some way when you choose to leave and sometimes i just can't don't want to be with you that's why

i knew this all along
had a picture in my mind so please don't try to call my bluff i don't think i can try to fight it

we put both of our hearts on the line take what's yours and darling i'll take mine head first inside the deepest dive i've been waiting for you my whole life now when you see me you walk the other way i guess it's easy to say you never saw me that day and with my intel about you why can't we make amends? i'll never see you again i think you're more of a friend

i like it
it's a sign you don't think like me
but we

we put both of our hearts on the line
head first inside the deepest dive
