

Pips Chips And Video Clips, If I Could

If I could I would take all away the pain that this world is feeling we don't need no more pain going off to war I don't think this is right for us.

we have been throw so the storm and now we have to help one other cause this can't go on this and you see that we are hurting one other what another country has and this is way we have to be there with one other show our love for the world.

I f I could I would help you in this pain release you of your fear's never give up could hope is here.
