

Pitchshifter, Wafer Thin

Nothing's cool, nothing's clean, nothing's like it used to be.
Nothing sweet, nothing's smooth, nothing's got the best of me.

And no-one scared cos no-one cares now nothing's got a place to be.
And no-one cares cos no-one dares and nothing's gonna comfort me.

You're wafer thin, you do me in, say nothing like you used to be.
You're wafer thin, you do me in, stay nothing like the rest of me.

Nothing's right, nothing's sane, nothing's how it could've been.
Nothing straight, nothing's pure, yeah nothing's what it should've been.

And no-one scared cos no-one cares now nothing's got a place to be.
And no-one cares cos no-one dares and nothing's gonna comfort me.

You're wafer thin, you do me in, say nothing like you used to be.
You're wafer thin, you do me in, stay nothing like the rest of me.

And no-one scared cos no-one cares now nothing's got a place to be.
And no-one cares cos no-one dares and nothing's gonna comfort me.

You're wafer thin, you do me in, say nothing like you used to be.
You're wafer thin, you do me in, stay nothing like the rest of me.
