

Pivitplex, Gravity

Gravity, pulling my head down
Is the weight too much to bear?
I walk this road
Choking on a dust cloud
Will my words of love disappear?

I'm not fading out
I'm not breaking down
They can tear my world apart,
I'm not giving in.
No, No.

Cutting words
Teach me to hate my brother
Did my God of love disappear?
The darkest night
I'm looking through headlights
While the ditches are full of despair

I'm not fading out
I'm not breaking down
They can tear my world apart,
I'm not giving in.
No, No.

And I'm not staying down.
I'm not copping out.
They can tear my world apart,
I'm not giving in.

Love is like the ocean.
Love is like a wave.
God's love is like a tidal wave,
Take me away.

I'm not fading out
I'm not breaking down
They can tear my world apart,
I'm not giving in.

And I'm not staying down.
I'm not copping out.
They can tear my world apart,
I'm not giving in.
