

Pivitplex, Overshaken

Hey, it's me again.
Just the one I didn't want to see.
A confrontation I would rather avoid.

It's in my skin always tryin' to trip me up from within.
I checked with me I think I'm getting annoyed.

What do I want from me,
my eyes are wide but my mind is blurry,
overshaken I'm just fading away.

What did I want to see,
a little more junk for my flesh to feed on,
overshaken I'm just fading away.
Here I am rollin' round the dirt again.

It's just the kind of pain I like to endure.
But, when I fall and make myself sick again,
there's always One that's there to give the cure.

What do I want from me,
my eyes are wide but my mind is blurry,
overshaken I'm just fading away.

What did I want to see,
a little more junk for my flesh to feed on,
overshaken I'm just fading away.
Hey, it's me again. Just the one I didn't want to see,
but everywhere I go I'm already there.

What do I want from me,
my eyes are wide but my mind is blurry,
overtaken I'm just fading away.
What did I want to see,
a little more junk for my flesh to feed on,
overtaken I'm just fading away.
