

Pixies, BAGBOY

I had a bad reaction to your public hobby writings I get no satisfaction from your very recent sightings

cover your breath
polish your speech

cover your breath
cover your teeth
polish your speech

like when I hear the sound of feet slapping on the runway
cover your breath
polish your speech
like a small bird pretty while it's crapping on the new day
cover your breath
polish your speech
cover your breath
polish your teeth

so disappointed I was that I had made small talk with you
polish your teeth
alter your breath
I'm not feeling your buzz I only smell your crock of stew
polish your teeth
alter your breath
alter your teeth
cover your breath
Bag boy bag boy bag boy bag boy

she had some beauty and manners but you look like a bug
cover your breath
alter your speech
migrations of their type are such good planners and not smug
cover your breath
alter your speech

you are proselytizing alone listening to the voice with your ears you have regurgitated the tone now sat in your tract for many years picked up from dead things that you licked it's a feedback loop you can't evict
cover your breath
cover your teeth
cover your breath
polish your speech
cover your breath
polish your speech
cover your breath
polish your teeth
polish your teeth
cover your breath
cover your breath
alter your speech
cover your breath
