

Pixietricks, To Far Away Times

Somewhere
Beyond the rain and autumn plains, the snow
That litters the countryside
I find a piece of you

And somewhere
Beyond the frozen fields, I clearly see
The end of our misery
A part of the place we knew

And slowly down through the fire, burning
Into this darkness I fall
Your presence right here beside me, yearning
Through it all

And as the shadow dawns upon us
All I seem to think about is Where our hope has faded away
Into

kage wo miedashitara
kangaeru dake wa

And somewhere
Beyond the hills below the horizon sun
A life that has just begun
A life we're meant to know

inaka no yuki ni
