PJ Harvey, Death Is Not The End

When you're sad and when you're lonely And you haven't got a friend Just remember that death is not the end

And all that you held sacred
Falls down and does not mend
Just remember that death is not the end
Not the end, not the end
Just remember that death is not the end

When you're standing on the crossroads That you cannot comprehend Just remember that death is not the end

And all your dreams have vanished And you don't know what's up the bend Just remember that death is not the end Not the end, not the end Just remember that death is not the end

When storm clouds gather round you And heavy rains descend Just remember that death is not the end

And there's no one there to comfort you With a helping hand to lend Just remember that death is not the end Not the end, not the end Just remember that death is not the end

For the tree of life is growing
Where the spirit never dies
And the bright light of salvation
Up in dark and empty skies
When the cities are on fire
With the burning flesh of men
Just remember that death is not the end

When you search in vain to find Some law-abiding citizen Just remember that death is not the end

Not the end, not the end Just remember that death is not the end Not the end, not the end Just remember that death is not the end
