Placebo, The Crawl

It takes the pain away that could not make you stay it's way to broke to fix no glue, no bag of tricks

Lay me down, the lie will unfurl lay me down to crawl.

Your smile would make me sneeze when we were Siamese Amazing grace in here I'd pay to have you near.

Lay me down, the lie will unfurl lay me down to crawl.

Don't go and lose your face at some stranger's place and don't forget to breathe and pay before you leave

Lay me down, the lie will unfurl lay me down to crawl. Lay me down, the lie will unfurl lay me down to crawl.
