

Plajia, A Love Song For Everyone

Nobody knows what I say
Nobody wants to live this way
Nobody, cries for me

Nobody tries to save the world
Which has been saved already pals
Nobody, nobody

It's a love song for everyone

Nobody reaches perfection
Because they don't know what this word means
Nobody, just me

Because our love is reflection
Do this for me, you sweet person
Nobody, nobody

It's a love song for everyone
