

Planet Smashers, Get Out My Baby

I have been saving my money for many a year
Then you sold me out to the cable man, woah, my dear
You say you're not guilty, you say you've been telling the truth,
But I caught you kissing the other boy and lying is just more proof
Get out, get out my baby
'Cause you've been messing with the other boy
Take back your second hand records
Take back your second hand clothes
I'll send you back to your mothers
Where you won't cheat anymore
You still say you're not guilty
You still say you're telling the truth
But I caught you messing with many a boy
And lying is just more proof
Get out, get out my baby
Driving me crazy, my lying cheating baby
