

Planetshakers, Could I Ever

When I woke up today
Thought of all the things You've done
Found myself here
Feeling all so overcome

You gave Your life away for me
Truly my heart belongs to You
So let me say

Could I ever thank You for
What You did at Calvary
When You bled and died for me
Could I ever turn away
Knowing that You paid the price
That I could never pay

When I think of the way
That You died upon that Cross
Bearing my sin
Even though my heart was lost
