

Planetshakers, Everything

So what else can I say
But what You mean to me
You are my everything
And all I need to say

Is I will praise You now and always
I will lift Your Name on high
You have given me a new start
And I will live to praise Your Name

You are great and mighty
You are Prince of Peace
You are everything to me

You are my Redeemer
You are King of kings
You are everything to me

Holy, holy, holy
Lord God Almighty
Who was and is and is to come
