

Planetshakers, My Passion

I gaze into Your Glorious light
I know You're with me day and night
And now I want to praise Your name

There's nothing else that I want more
Than just to look at You in awe
I sense Your Spirit set to move

I know Your love it never ends
I know Your power gives me strength
I know somehow I'll never be the same

It's Your grace
That brought me freedom to praise
And glorify Your Name
My passion is to worship You
