

Planetshakers, Run Into Your Arms

Where could I go that I could
Hide myself from You
Where could I run that You won't
Be there waiting for me
Closer to You I find my heart is drawing near
And I need Your love
And I need Your touch

I will run into Your arms
And I will fall into Your mercy
I will sing forevermore
You're calling me to come to You
Gonna run into Your arms

Like a father with his child
Won't You show me now Your saving Grace
Yes Your saving Grace
Lord I want to be with You
Come and show me now Your endless love
As I reach for You
