

Platinum Blonde, Holy Water

Why are we wasting our time
In a world we never made
This Garden of Eden
Where my sanity is saved

I will follow you
I will follow
Holy water
No more broken promises of love

Pennies from heaven
Keep us dancing in the shade
But can we believe them
What makes us so afraid

I will follow you
Turn me onto automatic
I will follow

Holy water
No more broken promises
Holy water
No more broken promises of love

Don't you tell me about love

I will follow you
Turn us into holy water
I will follow

Chorus
