Platinum Blonde, I Might Have You

I've been rakin for a long time now
Something's happened and I don't know how
I've been living on broken dreams
Senses returning from a holiday
And they're back and I don't know what to say

I never meant to let you down
Just stop these clouds from hanging 'round

If I could take away the heartache
And take away what's blue, maybe it's true
I might have you

All these phases I was going through
I can't believe what I did to you
I wish I could take it back
Cause we had something now it's gone
Please believe me when I say I was wrong
I was wrong

Cause I know it's late to realize
Now something like this has passed me by
I want it back, I want it back
