

Play, Unspeakable

Something in the air, baby something that you said
I'm feeling butterflies around me baby - I, I just can't breathe Somethings saying no, but my heart is letting go
And I'm moving into my subliminal and that's where this gets deep Now you cloud up my senses but I don't know you yeah..no no Oh don't say a word,
you might just curse a good thing,
and what I'm thinking can't be heard,
it's unspeakable
the way I feel your vibe
It's just so natural, instinctual
it's unspeakable, the way I need you ...
You're living in my mind
So don't feed me any lines
When I make my own reality
Don't wanna know your game
Cause anything you say will be getting in the way
Of a world full of possibility Don't wake me from my dreams

Cause I'm imagining you and me
And all the things we could be...ohh ohhhhh

Oh don't say a word
You might just curse a good thing
What I am thinking
Can't be hurt
Its unspeakable
The way I feel your vibe
Its just so natural instinctual
It's unspeakable the way I need you

Behind your eyes, i recognize something else right down my spine like nothing i ever felt you might be my destiny fantasy everything i need and boy you could beeeeeeee there for meee ohh

Oh don't say a word
You might just curse a good thing
What I am thinking
Can't be hurt
Its unspeakable
The way I feel your vibe
Its just so natural, instinctual
It's unspeakable the way I need you dont..say..a..word...((repeat))
