

PlayRadioPlay!, I Am A Pirate, You Are A Princess

Is there a hole in your heart?
Or am I mistaken?
I can see your capillary veins.
You be the patient, I'll be the surgeon.
Just like first grade on the playground all day.

Soon enough you'll hear the black top calling for you.
After that, there is not much else you can do...

Have you forgotten your place?
I'm being sarcastic;
That shit could kill a bus of kids.

We have a good thing.
She is a bad thing.
Why would she want to break us?
Who would want to break us?

Soon enough, you'll hear the black top calling your name.
Every day of your life will never be the same.

I am a pirate, you are a princess.
We could sail the seven seas...
Bring back some presents for all the people.
Everyone will love us.
Even Courtney will love us.
