

Pleasurehouse, Happy When You Leave

There is no reason why you should care
There is no reason why you should cry
Keep all the things that you want
You are the one who should leave
'Cause I'm happy to leave you
And my feelings are leaving
Take all your pain now through the door
I have no words enough for you
Don't talk to me anymore
Give back the keys when you leave
'Cause I'm happy to leave you
And my feelings are leaving
I'm happy to leave you
And my feelings are leaving
'Cause I'm happy to leave you
And my feelings are leaving
And I'm happy to leave you
And my feelings are leaving
I'm leaving you (repeat 4)
