

Plus One, Tonight

I wanna walk down 3rd street slow Drive up and down the coast Watching the sunset hang while God puts on His show I want a life outside my own a stranger that everybody knows i want to kill the ghost that haunts me as i grow

But today
and every single day just covers up my face the earth is dark but i can see the sky

Chorus:
tonight
i 'll leave myself behind and run into the light i am broken but that just your type i want to trade this tongue for ears make failure disappear i want the confidence that doesnt leen on cheers i wan to plant the golden sea beside a sparkling sea working my way up high in a deeply rooted tree

and every single day
just cripples both my legs these hands dont work but yours will do just fine

Chorus

Tonight
yeah tonight

Shine your light let me see tonight
Shine your light but your heart in mine
Cut the cord from this empty life
Cut the cord leave it all behind

Shine your light let me see tonight
Shine your light put your heart in mine
Cut the cord form this empty life
Cut the cord leave it all leave it all behind

Shine your light let me see tonight
Shine your light put your heart in mine
Shine your light let me see tonight
Shine your light but your heart in mine

Chorus

shining light put your heart in mine (tonight) Shining light let me see tonight (yeah) shining light put your heart in mine

(come on shining light put you r heart in mine) yeah
