

Po' Girl, Skies Of Grey

i been running all my life, i'm still running, i'm still running i been running all my life, i'm still running, i'm still running, i could walk and never tire, never falter when I fly and if you give me skies of grey, i'll bring you rain to wash us clean again i will hold you in my song, i will sing you strong, i will sing you strong i will hold you in my song, i will sing you strong, i will sing you strong, you will rock me in your arms, and that will be my home and if you give me skies of grey, i'll bring you rain to wash us clean again i been hoping for a change, i'm still hoping, i'm still hoping

sorrow holds me closer close, i will not bend my head to her and if you give me skies of grey, i'll bring you rain to wash us clean again
