

Podunk, Another Song

Another song for giving, another one for hope
There goes one for freedom
But I think that we all choked
But where's the one were lacking
The one that gets us high
The one that we all need so bad
That we could all just die

Love ... love

Where's the one that got us here
The one that whispered in our ear
The one that we all know so well

Another song for living, another for blue skies
And one for seeing everything
Through someone elses eyes
But where's the one we needed
When we shuffled off to bed
The one that keeps on swirling
In the backside of our heads

Love ... love

Where's the one that got us here
The one that whispered in our ears
The one that we all know so well
It struck the head and drove the nail
Where's the one that takes you home
The one that won't leave you alone
Where's the one that got us here
The one that whispered in our ear

Once you got it, your never gonna give it up
Once you got it, your always gonna live it up
Once you get it, it's never gonna be enough
Go and get it, go and get it, go and get it
