

Podunk, Soap Box

I'm feeling down, down, down
From the punches
That I've taken now
Still everyday you know I try to smile
And see if I can't keep it on for awhile
And I'm waiting for the bell to ring

I'm felling down, down, down
From the voices
That are talking loud
Still everyday you know i try to smile
And see if i can't keep it on for awhile
And I'm waiting for someone to scream

All my life
I've been everything you want me to be
Ya know it doesn't matter to me

I'm going down...
