

Poe, Control Freak

Johnny, Angry Johnny, this is Jezebel in Hell

I wanna kill you

I wanna blow you...

Away!!

I can do it to you gently

I can do it with an animal's grace

I can do it with precision

I can do it with gourmet taste

But either way

Either way

I wanna kill you

I wanna blow you

Away

I can do it to your mind

I can do it to your face

I can do it with integrity

I can do it with disgrace

But either way...

I can do it in a church

I can do it any time or place

I can do it like an angel

To quiet down your rage

But either way...

I can do it in the water

I can do it on dry land

I can do it with instruments

I can do it with my own bare hands

But either way

Either way, tou know where it stands

I wanna kill you

I wanna blow you

Away

Where did your pleasure go

When the pain came through you

Where did your happiness go

This force is running you around now

Getting you down now

Where is your pleasure now Johnny

Where has your pleasure gone now
