

Poi Dog Pondering, Living With The Dreaming Body

Robin's in the metaphysical section

She's got "Living with the Dreaming Body"

She's sprawled out along the carpet floor

She says my work is like eating cold oatmeal

yesterday's oatmeal, day after day

She says my work is like eating cold oatmeal

day after day, and she's right.

Drunk on margaritas and full of food,

she says "it's hard to be with one when you're in love with another."

Drunk on margaritas and full of food,

she says "it's hard to be with one when you're in love with another."
