

Poison, Hollyweird

welcome to my city

the girls are so damn pretty such a pity, they don't come for free just call me pimp daddy i'll roll ya one big fatty i think your gonna like hangin with me chorus

welcome to my city of sin i believe your gonna fit right in yes this is my city of sin your first lesson is about to begin now you're living in the city of sin you don't mind if i call you friend once you enter you can never get out of here welcome to hollyweird

i'm the king of the streets i own the cops, the junkies and freaks it's human wasteland i call home grow your hair to your shoes trust me boy you just can't lose soon this be the only life you've ever known
