

Poison The Well, Moments Over Exaggerate

Open everything around how I want to say kiss me you don't want to ruin anything daring and beautiful stones AIM at me you never AIM at me cursed with never being seen in your dreams I'll walk around dead to you
I'll lie around dead to me I feel soon you'll wake with imaginary dreams and wanting to hold this memory always wondering who's coming to save who's saving me
cursed with never being seen in your dreams
I'll walk around dead to you
I'll lie around dead to me open everything around so all can see how fast you waved good-bye
