

Pola, Let's Go Home

You're alone and scared Life's been so hard on you there's no hope in your eyes and nobody wants you

Please don't feel so lost Cause there's nothing wrong with you it's what people do

But I have little time to place the blame I'll do what I can to get you back in the game so don't give up, the sun will shine again

In this big wild world,
I'm holding you now
No matter what they did you're gonna be fine
it will be all right and now that you're here
I will be your angel and you'll be my friend
Let's go home

As the days go by Your eyes start to smile again and the wonders of the world open up your little soul I just can't believe how wonderful you are you're a star and I want everyone else to know what is your story and where you came from so let's go out the sun is out again

In this big wild world,
I'm holding you now
No matter what they did you're gonna be fine
it will be all right and now that you're here
Let's go home
Welcome home
