

Pooh, Your Love

Caught in the web of a spell
That goes on and on and on
Lost in a dream ever more
Flowing from a magic wand
I like these changes inside of me
I've touched your magic
And I can't believe it
What I'm feeling
All I want is you to hold me tight
And I dream about it
Every morning
Through the evening
Every day and night
Your love
Your love
Sailing along on a sea
Made of rainbows through the sky
Drifting away to a love
Always near and never far
And each new moment is better than the last
Forever flowing
And I can't believe it
How I'm feeling
All I want to do is hold you tight
And I dream about it every morning
Every evening every day and night
Your love
Your love
Your love
Your love
