

Poor Man's Riches, Motions

Open eyes to a new day dawning
Horizon shows itself to me
One day less for me to be

I'm just going through the motions of life again
Waiting for the moment to find me
Hanging on a glimpse of forever
One more time and I'm there

Shut the door on the past
Walk upon the stage again
To another life another chance another way to make a stand
Let the Makers way in me begin

I'm just going through the motions of life again
Waiting for the moment to find me
Hanging on a glimpse of forever
One more time and I'm there

Wipe away the one I used to be
Make me the one You want to see
My everything is You I let go of myself
I fall to You

I'm just going through the motions of life again
Waiting for the moment to find me
Hanging on a glimpse of forever
One more time and I'm there
