

Poor Old Lu, More

As one of the last songs written for Mindsiz, we chose to put it as the first song that many people

This song is about abundant life in Christ. It is also about missing the wonderful opportunities that a

Oblivious to some things more in store And when I wept I knew not what or when or why what for Is this earth so great though it will not last Through crashing walls what stands is one good thing one way one chance

And glimmer shining up and through the floor Will run and hide and fade just like He said it would before And now my head is really spinning fast
I lived it all for me and now it simply moved right past

Seeing, revealing
More is here today
Distance, no wisdom
I pushed true life away

"Wonderful" have I missed and I ignore And "terrible" was my word and was my life I became poor Self was in my hands and then it passed I'm left with picture perfect thought of what we think we have

Imagine when I found I'm no savior Imagine when I knew and saw and fell before the Lord Myself none of any good my world crashed
I lived it all for me
and so it simply moved right past.
