

Popsie, Sea Of Tears

Spending my days starring at the wall
For hours in vain not a single call
I must tell you my heart has turned in two
And there is no way gettin' over you
Too many times you made me cry
A hundred tear drops from my eye
I cannot suffer this way
I cannot stand it one more day

Sea of tears can't easy my pain
I need you baby like a flower needs rain
Now my love I see it clear
Neither your heart or spirit is here

Sea of tears can't easy my pain
I need you baby like a flower needs rain
Now my love I see it clear
Neither your heart or spirit is here

Look into your eyes, there's no light
All the fire is gone, it isn't right
In your arms, it feels so cold
It's not me you wanna hold
Indispensable like the blood in my vein
Can't you see that you are causin' me pain
It's a shame, but I could not see
That the love between us wasn't meant to be

Sea of tears can't easy my pain
I need you baby like a flower needs rain
Now my love I see it clear
Neither your heart or spirit is here

Sea of tears can't easy my pain
I need you baby like a flower needs rain
Now my love I see it clear
Neither your heart or spirit is here

Where is your love for me my baby
Can't you see that you are causin' me pain
Too many times you made me cry
I cannot stand it one more day

Sea of tears can't easy my pain
I need you baby like a flower needs rain
Now my love I see it clear
Neither your heart or spirit is here

Sea of tears can't easy my pain
I need you baby like a flower needs rain
Now my love I see it clear
Neither your heart or spirit is here

Sea of tears can't easy my pain
I need you baby like a flower needs rain
Now my love I see it clear
Neither your heart or spirit is here
