

Porcelain And The Tramps, You Want

You wanna show me here
You wanna show me there
You wanna run me down, into a perfect circle
Seams with stretch and then my bed with bust
And when I'm back to you, I'll have a story to tell

Words are worthless when you're laying in my bed

Tell me when im dead, is it sleeping on all the words thats you said
You're better off dead is it creepying all the words that I said
Cause you want me and you like me
Tell me that im dead ,is it sleeping on all the words thats you said
Cause you want me and you like me, dead

You wanna tear me up
You wanna stretch me out
And what you lost I found
And now I'm not giving it back

Words are worthless, when your laying in my bed

Tell me when I'm dead, is it sleeping on all the words thats you said
You're better off dead is it creepying all the words that I said
Cause you want me and you like me
Tell me that I'm dead ,is it sleeping on all the words thats you said
Cause you want me and you like me, dead

I love you
But I'll never change

Tell me when I'm dead, is it sleeping on all the words thats you said (Cause you want)
You're better off dead is it creepying all the words that I said
Cause you want me and you like me
Tell me when I'm dead ,is it sleeping on all the words thats you said
Cause you want me and you like me (x4)
Cause you want me, and you like me, dead
