

Porter Wagoner, Here's A Toast To Mama

Today I found a dollar on the sidewalk so I went and bought a jug of wine
And I'll sit here in this alley and keep drinkin'
Until the thought of mama leaves my mind
Here's a toast to mama do you miss me do you even think about me anymore
Mama did you even stop to kiss me when you left me layin' at a stranger's door

Oh how I wish I could've known you mama
Then maybe now I wouldn't feel all the shame
Maybe now I wouldn't feel so empty cause mama I don't even know your name
Here's a toast to mama...
